11:15 Worship for all

We're pleased to welcome you today. Feel free to sit anywhere. Some of the words for our hymns are printed here and the rest are in the purple hymn book, and all should be displayed on-screen. We stand for hymns and sit for everything else, unless directed otherwise and generally wait for the Bible and offering to be taken from the church before leaving. If you'd like to know anything more about us or what we do, have a word with someone who welcomed you at the door.

11:15 The Morning Service

God of life, we come in worship,

lost in wonder, filled with awe,
at your feet we kneel in homage,
here to marvel and adore.
Words cannot express your greatness,
awesome is your majesty.
Higher than the highest mountain,
deeper than the deepest sea.

God of love, we come rejoicing,
here to celebrate your grace.
Consecrate this sacred moment,
help us meet you face to face.
In the name of Christ we gather,
by his touch our lives made new,
cleansed, renewed, restored, refashioned,
all we are and all we do.

God of light, we come in gladness,
souls on fire and hearts ablaze,
reaching out in adoration,
songs resounding to your praise.
Take the hope that flames within us,
take the joy that burns so bright;
may our lives reflect your glory
and find favour in your sight.
Nick Fawcett; Hymns Old & New 154

Come on, let's get up and go,

let everyone know.
We've got a reason to shout and to sing
'cause Jesus loves us
and that's a wonderful thing.
Go! go! go! go! get up and go,
don't be sleepy or slow.
You, you, you, you know what to do,
give your life to Him.

Our God is a great big God,
*Our God is a great big God,
Our God is a great big God,
And he holds us in his hands*
He's higher than a sky scraper and he's deeper than a submarine.
He's wider than the universe
and beyond my wildest dreams.
And he's known me
and he's loved me
since before the world began.
How wonderful to be a part of God's amazing plan.

Be known to us in breaking bread,
But do not then depart;
Saviour, abide with us, and spread
Thy table in our heart.

There sup with us in love divine;
Thy body and Thy blood,
That living bread, that heavenly wine,
Be our immortal food.

We would not live by bread alone,
But by Thy word of grace,
In strength of which we travel on
To our abiding place.
James Montgomery

CH4 157 Sing of the Lord's goodness

We'll walk the land with hearts on fire;
and every step will be a prayer.
Hope is rising, new day dawning;
sound of singing fills the air.

Two thousand years, and still the flame is burning bright across the land.
Hearts are waiting, longing, aching,
for awakening once again.
*Let the flame burn brighter
in the heart of the darkness,
turning night to glorious day.
Let the song grow louder,
as our love grows stronger;
let it shine! let it shine!*

We'll walk for truth, speak out for love;
in Jesus' name we shall be strong,
to lift the fallen, to save the children,
to fill the nation with Your song.
Graham Kendrick; MP 743

Scripture Luke 24:13-35

13 Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. 14 They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. 15 As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; 16 but they were kept from recognizing him.

17 He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?"

They stood still, their faces downcast. 18 One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, "Are you only a visitor to Jerusalem and do not know the things that have happened there in these days?"

19 "What things?" he asked.

"About Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. 20 The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; 21 but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. 22 In addition, some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning 23 but didn't find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. 24 Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but him they did not see."

25 He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" 27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

28 As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus continued on as if he were going farther. 29 But they urged him strongly, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them.

30 When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. 31 Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. 32 They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?"

33 They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together 34 and saying, "It is true! The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon." 35 Then the two told what had happened on the way, and how Jesus was recognized by them when he broke the bread.
